Re: DBE Certification

Dear Ms. Arey:

We are pleased to notify you that your firm, Geologic-Earth Exploration, Inc., based solely on your homestate certification, has been renewed as a Minority/Disadvantaged Business Enterprise by the Maine Department of Transportation and will be listed in our Disadvantaged/Minority/ Women Business Enterprise Directory.

Your certification will be renewed based on your firm's ability to provide proof of your homestate Department of Transportation or its designee's certification each year. The only acceptable evidence shall be limited to a letter/certificate from the home state Department of Transportation which specifically states the firm's name, firm's owner, a brief description of the firm's scope of work or professional service, if a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise, Woman Business Enterprise, Minority Business Enterprise or other Socially and Economically Disadvantaged Enterprise, and the date through which the certification is authorized.

Failure to comply with these requirements within 30 days of your homestate renewal date each renewal year will result in the deletion of your firm's name from the Directory of D/M/WBEs.

As a woman owned firm, your participation in contracts may be counted toward the Department's Disadvantaged/Minority/Women Business Enterprise Commitments.
